

See reverse for mountain bike trail names and ratings.

Discover trail maps, directions, photos, and detailed trail reviews online at singletracks.com!

1	Papago Park Well-marked trail network convenient to downtown and the airport. A great after work ride.	Tempe	5 miles		★★★★★
2	Trail #100 Nice singletrack with great views and gradual climbs. Some loose, rocky sections.	Phoenix	10 miles		★★★★★
3	National Trail Hard pack and rocky mix with larger drop offs and jumps for those who seek them out.	Phoenix	14 miles		★★★★★
4	Desert Classic Relatively flat out-and-back ride that can be crowded on weekends. Look for more advanced terrain on the west side.	Phoenix	9 miles		★★★★★
5	Hawes Loop Riders who make the difficult climb up will be rewarded with great views and a heart-pounding downhill ride.	Mesa	12 miles		★★★★★
6	Usery Mountain Park Multiple loops with various options for beginning and intermediate riders. Amazing desert scenery.	Mesa	8 miles		★★★★★
7	Sunrise Mountain Bike Trail Gradual climb with great views of Phoenix and Scottsdale. Watch for hikers on this loop.	Scottsdale	10 miles		★★★★★
8	Cactus Cup Loop (McDowell Comp.) Twisting singletrack over rolling countours with pebble surface. Also known as the McDowell Competitive Loop.	Phoenix	13 miles		★★★★★
9	Estrella Mountain Park The Competitive Loop trail is actually two loops: the long loop and the technical loop. Mild climbs.	Phoenix	10 miles		★★★★★
10	San Tan Regional Park This well-marked doubletrack network can be sandy in places but it's a fun and easy place to ride.	Queen Creek	10 miles		★★★★★
11	Fantasy Island Fast singletrack trails built just for mountain biking. Multiple loops and options.	Tucson	19 miles		★★★★★
12	Tucson Mountain Park Great trail network for beginning riders, after work rides, and even night riding!	Tucson	30 miles		★★★★★
13	Sweetwater Preserve Eight miles of sweet singletrack adjacent to residential development on Tucson's west side. Great scenery.	Tucson	10 miles		★★★★★
14	50-year Trail / Golder Ranch Amazing flow and incredible scenery - this is what Tucson riding is all about!	Tucson	9 miles		★★★★★
15	Milagrosa / Molino Basin Very technical trail often ridden as a shuttle ride. Can be connected to the Arizona Trail for more mileage.	Tucson	8 miles		★★★★★

Singletracks.com cannot guarantee the accuracy of this information nor the conditions of the mountain bike trails mentioned here. As always, ride at your own risk!